INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS (IPR) COMMITTEE – ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Committee is responsible for promoting awareness, protecting intellectual property, and supporting innovation and commercialization of research outcomes within the institution. It ensures compliance with national and international IPR regulations and encourages faculty and students to secure their inventions, patents, copyrights, and trademarks.

Roles and Responsibilities

1. Awareness & Training Programs

- Organize seminars, workshops, and training sessions on IPR, patents, copyrights, and trademarks.
- Educate students and faculty on IP protection, commercialization, and legal aspects.
- Promote awareness of ethical research practices and plagiarism prevention.

2. Identifying & Supporting Innovations

- Assist researchers in identifying patentable ideas, novel research, and innovative projects.
- Encourage faculty and students to convert research findings into patents or copyrights.
- Provide technical and legal guidance on filing patent applications.

3. Plagiarism Prevention & Ethical Research Practices

- Ensure the use of plagiarism detection tools before publishing research papers.
- Promote academic integrity and originality in research work.
- Provide guidelines for proper citation, referencing, and publication ethics.
